Houston, Texas, June 7, 2010 - Whitestone REIT, a public, non-traded REIT that acquires, owns and operates Community Centered Properties™, announced its June dividend to common shareholders and limited partnership unit holders of record as of June 4, 2010. Historically, the Company has declared quarterly dividends, with the distributions being paid in three equal monthly installments. In conjunction with this potential offering, the Company has declared monthly dividends in April, May and June 2010.

Should the offering close within a quarter, the Board of Trustees said it intends to authorize and pay a pro-rata distribution to the new IPO shareholders, covering the partial quarter commencing on the closing date of the offering and ending on the quarter end. Subsequent to the potential offering, the Board said it intends to revert to the Company's previous practice of declaring quarterly dividends.
